"Stephen was most helpful and knowledgeable. I'd obtained application forms from HK Immigration, and I had a number of questions. Stephen really helped me to understand what the immigration officers would be looking for, how to show the necessary evidence, and generally what things would be important for a successful application. Thanks!"

Golden Residence Permit of Portugal – Tennis

Ever since the first official Portugal Open in 2013 my teenage daughter and her friends have become completely obsessed with tennis, both watching and playing.

There has been a major tennis tournament held in Estoril since the 1990s; but it was recently rebranded as the Open to reflect its profile as one of the top international events on the world circuit. The games are played on clay courts usually towards the end of April and the beginning of May. You can book tickets and all kinds of travel packages by visiting the official website.

The Power of Free - Connection Economy

This is a series of 7 talks where Stephen shares freely and openly how he and Martyn started again, lessons learned, the realities of a modern internet-enabled economy and how everything has changed.

As you'd expect with a title, The Power of Free, these sessions are 100% free. But make no mistake, the value of this content is priceless; Stephen is essentially telling his story publicly for the very first time and you will not want to miss it.

The Connection Economy

My intellectual heroes; the Big Bang; death of an economy; the connection revolution; relationships (not transactions) matter; the machine we cannot see; human knowledge & endeavour is paramount; now is the moment.

However, in 2009 events in his life conspired such that, almost bankrupt through stupid decisions made, he had to start all over again.

Between 2009 and 2011 Stephen and his business partner Martyn Penny, with zero capital and no resources beyond the knowledge in their heads worked to build a new immigration services practice from the ground up based on giving everything away for
